Dear Parents and Carers,

Relationships and Sex Education – Parent Consultation Summer 2026

All schools were required to consult with parents and carers about their Relationships and Sex Education curriculum.

Following an update to 2025 statutory guidance (England only), we have updated our RSHE policy to reflect the changes. As we follow the Jigsaw curriculum already, there are only a few changes happening in September. On Tuesday 7th July we are holding a session after school at 3:30pm for parents and carers to come along and find out more about the updates. If you are unable to make the session, the information will be shared on Dojo. Within the session we will share what has changed and how there is a stronger focus on contemporary issues (safeguarding and emotional literacy), New statutory requirements (misogyny, online bullying, financial education etc.). and stronger safeguarding messages.

Details regarding the new government guidance (Sept 2026) can be found here.

The current policy, and the draft policy can be found on the website:

The draft policy link looks like this:

The information shared at the session will be distributed if you are unable to attend.

We will close the consultation process on Friday 17th July 2026.

Thank you
